

PUBLIC STATEMENT OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF QUEENSLAND

July 29, 2022

Disclosure of Influence and Interaction of the Democratic Party of Queensland

The Democratic Party of Queensland (DPQ) has established, implemented and maintains a policy for disclosing interactions with individuals or entities intending to influence public policy. These individuals and entities should familiarise themselves with this policy and how it may affect them before contacting the DPQ.

Meetings & Correspondence Related to Public Policy

The DPQ discloses information about meetings and correspondence with individuals and entities who intend to influence public policy. We publish public statements containing the particulars of the parties and a summary of the meeting.

Meetings & Correspondence with Prospective Candidates

We will not automatically publish public statements disclosing meetings or correspondence with prospective candidates.

Enquiries from bona fide journalists and entities regarding meetings or correspondence with prospective candidates will receive a response via a public statement, addressing the relevant individual or entity requesting information and providing relevant information.
